

We make the packaging and solutions you use every day - from tubes, lipsticks, mascaras and pumps to applicators, packs with formula, travel kits and much more.
We serve prestigious and dynamic brands, whether they are legacy or indie, big or small, international or local.
We are a large/small company with 1.5 billion dollars in revenues, big-group assets and an entrepreneurial mindset.

We support our customers wherever they are in the world, thanks to our 10,000 people and 31-site footprint across West and East Europe, North America, China and Asia.
Our motto is "Made here. Made responsibly." because we care about the environment and our communities.

Our vision is to be the best company for our customers, people, partners and all of our stakeholders.

We are Albéa, the global leader in beauty packaging.
When can we connect?
